

Zifam Pinnacle are Proud Finalists

In the Manufacturing Segment

At the 55th Premiere NSW, Australia Export Awards

We are pleased to share that Zifam Pinnacle was recently named as a finalist at the 55th Premier's NSW , Australia export awards.

These awards are run by the Premier of NSW as a government initiative to award excellence of business within the State of NSW in Australia. This year, over 800 applicants applied for the various 12 award categories creating an extremely tough platform for the finals.

Zifam Pinnacle was officially announced as a finalist for the Manufacturing Award at a presentation on the 20th of September 2017, hosted by the Export Council of Australia. In a recent letter to Zifam Pinnacle, congratulating them on the official announcement, a quote from the CEO of the Export Council of Australia was included:

“The competition is extremely tough and we are thrilled to see a number of new names recognised for their tremendous efforts. It's fantastic to also see the diversity of the companies that entered the awards this year. To acknowledge and celebrate the success of NSW companies is an important part of encouraging more companies to think global. We congratulate you on being named a finalist in the 55th Premier's NSW Export Awards ,” Lisa McAuley, CEO of the Export Council of Australia

Zifam welcomes the acknowledgment of the hard work that has been undertaken by all their valued staff, in the pivotal roles that are undertaken, ensuring the continued high level of excellence that has made Zifam a trusted name in more than 20 countries around the world.

Thank you for your support in our brand and we look forward to the continued success in the future.
